LAW WAS OVERLOOKED

Failure to Advertise Foreclosure In Hawaiian.

Failure to advertise a foreclosure of mortgage sale in the manner prescribed by law may bring the property of L. H. Dee up again for a second sale, this time after being properly advertised.

It was found after the sale of Mr.
Dee's property that the whole matter could be declared void owing to the fact that the intention to foreclose the mortgage was advertised only in the English language, whereas it should have been advertised in the Hawaiian language as well.

The Civil Laws specifically provide for the manner in which such matters shall be advertised. It is provided that the parties having the power to sell mortgaged property, may, upon a breach of the conditions give notice of intention to foreclose such mortgage by publication of such notice in the Hawaiian and English languages for a period of three consecutive weeks before advertising the mortgaged property for sale.

NO NUNNERY FOR GEAR.

At the hearing of the case for annulment of marriage between Eliza Holt Christian and Albert Christian held in Judge Gear's court yesterday morning, it was desired that Judge Gear hold court pro tem at the Catholic Convent in order that testimony could be obtained from Mother Judith, the Mother Superior of the convent of the Sacred Hearts, Eliza Holt having once been a pupil in the convent. It was shown that by the rules of the convent the Mother Superior could not go outside its walls. Judge Gear, however, refused to go within the nunnery on the ground that the court had its place of sitting and would not change unless a witness was physically unable to attend court.

Under the peculiar circumstances of the case, however, Judge Gear finally appointed Clerk Sims as a master to take the testimony at the convent.
"Judge" Sims, accompanied by the attorneys for both sides, visited the convent in the morning and the Mother Superior testified that Eliza Holt had been somewhat backward while a pupil at the school, had generally associated with children of much younger age than herself, and was generally behind in her studies.

LEFT NO WILL.

Judge Gear yesterday ordered the matter of the estate of Ng Fawn, deceased, set for hearing on Monday, August 22, at 10 a. m. Ng Ping, a nephew, asks that titles of administration be issued to him. No will appears to have been left by decedent, where estate is valued at about $1,000. The heirs are Wong See, widow, Ng Ching

THE BRIGHT SIDE of life. It is a feeling common to the majority of us that we do not get quite the amount of happiness we are entitled to.

Among the countless things which tend to make us more or less miserable ill health takes first place. Hannah More said that sin was generally to be attributed to biliousness. No doubt a crippled liver with the resulting impure blood, is the cause of more mental gloom than any other single thing. And who can reckon up the fearful aggregate of pain, loss and fear arising from the many diseases which are familiar to mankind; like a vast cloud it hangs over a multitude no one can number.
You can see these people everywhere. For them life can scarcely be said to have any "bright side" at all. Hence the eagerness with which they search for relief and cure. Remedies like WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION have not attained their high position in the confidence of the people by bald assertions and boasting advertisements. They are obliged to win it by doing actually what is claimed for them.
That this remedy deserves its reputation is conceded. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with the Compound Syrup of Malt and Wild Cherry.
Nothing has such a record of success in Scrofula, Influenza, Throat and Lung Troubles, and emaciating complaints and disorders that tend to undermine the foundations of strength and vigour. Its use helps to show life's brighter side. Professor Reddy, of Canada, says: "I have much pleasure in stating that I have used it in cases of debility and found it to be a very valuable remedy as well as pleasing to take." You cannot be disappointed in it. Sold by chemists.

COURT NOTES.

Copy of the order of Judge Matthew-man, appointing John P. Curtis as clerk of the Third Circuit Court on Hawaii, was filed yesterday in the clerk's office.

Lost His Watch.

A passenger on the S. S. China by the name of C. G. Cook reported to the police yesterday morning that he had lost a valuable gold watch with the inscription "C. G. C., Nov. 13, '03" on the Hackfeld wharf. He stayed at the Hawaiian hotel over night and left on the steamer at 6 in the morning.

STRAUSS IS HALED BEFORE JUDGE GEAR

Attorney Leon M. Strauss has been ordered before Judge Gear yesterday morning on an order issued by the court to answer a charge preferred by a client of his, August Johansen by name, a driver employed in the street department of the government.

The client stated to Judge Gear that he had given Strauss the sum of $22.50 as a fee with which to bring a divorce suit against Johansen's wife. The money was paid over on June 22, but Johansen says no suit has been filed.
He showed a receipt signed by Strauss for the amount.

Johansen is to bring suit against his wife on the ground that as soon as he leaves the house in the morning she quits the place and associates with men whom the husband has little use for.

COMMODORE COOPER WILL GIVE CHOWDER

Commodore Cooper has issued invitations to the members of the Hawaii Yacht Club for next Saturday evening at the club house at Pearl Harbor peninsula. The train leaves Honolulu at 5:15 p. m., and returning leaves the peninsula at 10:30 p. m.

While ladies have not been especially invited, they will be cordially welcomed to take part in the entertainment.
Many ladies have already signified their intention of attending. There will first be served a fish chowder, Boston baked beans and brown bread. A quintette club will be in attendance, and it is likely that a dance will be indulged in after a short business meeting.

Regulation yachting white blouse and white trousers will be en regle for members of the club.

MOANALUA SENT TO INSANE ASYLUM

Moanalua, the half-witted Hawaiian youth, was committed to the Insane Asylum by Judge Lindsay yesterday morning. Dr. Emerson and three employees of the Rapid Transit Company were the witnesses in the case. The former testified as to the mental condition of the man and the carmen told of Moanalua's actions at the time when he threw rocks at Conductor Souza's car and of his insulting passengers.
The evidence was declared sufficient and the man was committed to the asylum.

John Kaaa, the fake health inspector, was sentenced to six months on each of four charges of larceny in the second degree. He pleaded guilty. Willie Bill, a negro, who assaulted a Chinaman named Mok Kwai on the waterfront, July 12, was sent to the reef for three months.

James Hanlon, an old fisherman, was up charged with vagrancy, sentence was suspended in his case for six months. John Manenoughsky, up for the same offense, was given three months. He is the man who pretended to be a cripple and while the officer was ringing up the patrol wagon made a break for liberty.

G. W. Hunt was fined $10 for assault and battery on Huen Monday night.
Hale, the man found wandering about in Palama, was sent to the Insane Asylum. Halo paid $3 and costs for profanity.

Stake and Ahia Maikai paid $5 and costs each for possessing che fa tickets.
Lee Wai, charged with violating a rule of the Board of Health, was discharged.
Twenty-three Chinamen charged with gambling will appear this morning.
Joseph Clark, charged with malicious injury, and Ung Gui, up for vagrancy, will have their cases heard July 28.

Capt. Bunn Dead.

News came yesterday of the death of Captain William C. Bunn of the British ship Carmanian. Captain Bunn made scores of friends during his vessel's stay in port at the first of the year.
His match box collection and other curios were the delight of all who saw them. The voyage from Honolulu to New Caledonia was the last the captain completed.

The San Francisco Chronicle of July 9 speaks of Captain Bunn as follows:
News of the death of Captain William F. Bunn of the British ship Carmanian was received yesterday from Delaware Breakwater, where the vessel arrived from Noumea, in the South seas, under command of the chief mate. He reported that Captain Bunn had died on May 20th at sea. Captain Bunn was well known here, having been in this port occasionally since 1888, when he came on the clipper ship Mikado from Liverpool. He was about 60 years old.

SIGNATURES ARE ON FILE

Carter's Will be Found In Governors Offices.

It is only a matter of time when the signatures of Governor Carter, Secretary of the Territory Atkinson and Treasurer Campbell will be on file in every office of the governors of all the states and territories in the Union.

According to custom the signatures of the above mentioned officers of every other state and territory will also be on file in the office of Secretary Atkinson.

In the mail received on the Korea Acting Governor Atkinson received a request from the executive of Maryland, asking for the signatures of the three principal officers of Hawaii.

"That's an old story," said Mr. Atkinson yesterday. "We have received similar requests from other states and territories. It's an old custom."

Each state and territory having the signatures from every other state and territory in the union is safeguarded from imposture and forgery of the names of possible correspondents. It is almost the same as the system of banking whereby every bank keeps the signatures of its patrons on file for reference.
